

Plae Bistro

Green Bay's Plae Bistro, a smoke-free dining establishment described as "a fresh new concept in American cuisine," opened in 2005. It is located at 2615 Decuria Lane, Ste. 10, in the Millennium Lifestyle Center off highways 172 and GV. Of note, an outdoor patio is available for warm weather dining. Visit www.plaebistro.com for hours of operation and a menu.

Recently, Fox Cities residents Gary and Karen sampled dinner at the restaurant, and report their experiences' below.

Plae Bistro's menu features gourmet salads and sandwiches, as well as pasta dishes and fresh ocean fish. Since there were so many options to choose from, and we weren't sure what we wanted, we asked our server, Nicole, to make recommendations.

For our appetizer, she suggested the Spinach and Artichoke Dip served in a rye bread bowl with blue corn chips and fresh veggies. It was absolutely fabulous.

For her entrée, Karen chose the Black Angus Tenderloin Medallions, which were char-grilled medium, accompanied with caramelized onions, grilled mushrooms, bleu cheese and a merlot reduction. The tenderloin was served with wild rice and chose grilled vegetables for the side dish. The steak was done perfectly; and the combination of the mushrooms, onions and merlot sauce was wonderful.

Gary decided to try the Ahi Tuna, a sushi-grade tuna pan-seared medium rare, accompanied with a soy, ginger and wasabi sauce. The tuna was served with a choice of two sides. Gary had the risotto of the day, which was the Asiago cheese and roasted red peppers risotto, and the grilled vegetables. The sauce enhanced the flavor of the tuna which was prepared to perfection. The tuna was a wonderful alternative as far as a healthy choice for dinner.

Plae Bistro offers a nice wine list, from which Gary selected the Pinot Grigio-Sterling. This wine was described as a classic medium-dry premium white wine with citrus flavors and was very good.

Karen selected a Sauvignon Blanc-Pomelo, a California medium-dry wine reminiscent of the coral pink tangy juice from a pomelo. This wine was more on the sweet side, light and fruity.

Gary also tried a Chardonnay-Tunnel of Elms, which was highlighted with bright citrus and tropical fruit flavors held together with a rich, creamy finish. Though this wine was the least expensive of the three, it was the favorite!

Overall, it was a very enjoyable dining experience. 🍷
